

Bodenham Moor, Pool Head, Maund Bryan and Rowberry Court

An easy walk which includes a bridleway and quiet country lanes

5 miles (8 km.) approx.

Start:- Car park at the Parish Hall, or England's Gate (S) opposite

Explorer 202 or Pathfinder 994 GR 545 514

Leave the Parish Hall (R) and turn right along the A417 or turn left out of England's Gate Inn (S) car park and left again at the A417, for 100 metres. Take the stile on the left at Calderwell (R) and follow the hedge to another stile into Ketch Lane. Turn left and at the end of the lane, right for 50 metres to a kissing gate on your left. Follow the hedge through two more gates and cross the field ahead to a fourth gate. Bear left to a footbridge into Orchard Close and cross the road into Chapel Lane.

Walk up Chapel Lane ignoring the lane on the right at Pool Head, until you come to a bridleway sign on the right by the grain dryer. Turn right along Watery Lane which will bring you to Maund

Bodenham Moor. Lower picture, Brockington Golf Course; centre right, England's Gate Inn; centre left, Baches Bargain Warehouse.

Common (W), which you cross and turn right up the lane past the Old Mission House (W). When you reach the road junction turn right and continue through Rowberry Court Farm to a lane on the right which you take back to Pool Head. Turn left and at the end of Chapel Lane turn right up the road back to England's Gate Inn (S) or carry on to cross the road to the Parish Hall.

