

across the lane. Follow the hedge on your left to another stile in that hedge, cross it, turn right and continue uphill bearing slightly left to another stile on to a track. After a pause for the view continue along the track to a stile and then to another on the left just before Ash Grove Farm. Follow the fence to another stile and bear right to the farm drive where you turn left until you reach the lane. Turn right down Cuddy Meadow Hill, locally corrupted to God Almighty Hill, because of its steepness, and then left at the road junction for 400 metres. Cross a stile on the left. Cross the field to a stile in the corner and keep on the same line to a stile in the far corner by the riverbank. Cross this stile and follow the River Lugg back to the footbridge and retrace your steps to the car park.
